Showing Some Love for Expat Youth: *Clements International Announces 3rd Annual Expat Youth Scholarship This Valentine's Day

Washington, D.C. (Feb. 14, 2011) —Clements International, the leading provider of insurance solutions for expatriates and international organizations, announces its 3rd annual scholarship program for expatriate students.

Clements International's Expat Youth Scholarship is a unique contest exclusively for expat students who spend their childhoods moving between different countries and cultures. This year's theme asks participants to create a video explaining their favorite thing about their host country and its culture. Clements will award a total of $10,000 to students ages 12-18 of any nationality who have resided in a foreign country for at least two consecutive years.

"We're so excited to offer the Expat Youth Scholarship again this year with a new twist," said President Chris Beck. "Incorporating online video and Facebook voting will really make this scholarship contest an interactive experience for everyone involved, including participants, expats, supporters and viewers around the world."

This year, everyone gets a chance to help determine the winners. A Judges Panel consisting of individuals representing the expatriate community will determine the top 12 video entries, which will be posted on the Expat Youth Scholarship Facebook page under the "Links" tab. During the month of August, members of the Expat Youth Scholarship fan page will be able to vote for their favorites using the "Like" feature. Voting (aka "Liking") will end on August 31. The total number of fan "Likes" will determine the top three winners in each age category.

The scholarship entry deadline is Friday, May 13, 2011. For more information about the scholarship and to submit entries, visit www.expatyouthscholarship.com.
