

What is new in Oxygen Forensic Suite 2011

-  New Case – Device – Section – Subsection navigation system provides faster access to the required data
-  Direct Blackberry reading without the need of OxyAgent application
-  Blackberry IPD backup files reading and parsing
-  Symbian^3 platform smart phones support
-  New Applications section gives easy access to the list of installed applications and gives access to their data files
-  Extracting and displaying login names and passwords for many popular social networks and IM clients
-  Extracting and displaying the history of starts for every iPhone application
-  Geo locations export to Google Earth
-  Extracting and displaying detailed information about Wi-Fi, 3G and GPRS internet sessions
-  New Locations section shows consolidated history of location services usage for iPhone
-  Extracting and displaying user dictionaries for Apple, Android and Blackberry devices
-  New Desktop section design - more informative and convenient
-  iPhone .plist files viewer is updated significantly. Now it has syntax highlighting and automatically decodes values to the most popular data formats
-  SQLite database viewer is updated significantly. Now it has a search feature and automatically decodes values to the most popular data formats
-  Export and Print functions added to multi-device Search feature
-  Loading password-protected iOS 3.x and 4.x backups