

La Voz Del Pueblo has invited Pia Cathcart on their station to discuss tax topics relevant to the Latino community. Mrs. Cathcart will be discussing tax topics that are specific to the Latino community. These topics will include how to properly apply for a tax ID number for dependents living out of the country and for those working in the U.S. without proper documentation. She will also discuss with La Voz on what to watch out for when searching for a tax preparer, such as hidden fees and supposed free returns and cash back for filing. Other areas of discussion will be how to get missing forms necessary to prepare your tax return and how to fix a return that was prepared incorrectly.

Listo Tax Solutions located at 701 S Stemmons Freeway in Lewisville, Texas was instrumental in putting this interview together. Pia has been preparing tax returns for 14 years. She primarily works with the Latino community and has extensive knowledge on tax issues specific to this community.

The interview will be conducted live on Wednesday February 16th and 10:20am.
