Full Dark, No Stars
 Hardcover, 384 pages

"I believe there is another man inside every man, a stranger... " writes prolific author Stephen King in the early pages of the riveting confession that makes up "1922," the first in this pitch-black quartet of mesmerizing tales from Stephen King. For James, that stranger is awakened when his wife, Arlene, proposes selling off the family homestead and moving to Omaha, setting in motion a gruesome trail of murder and madness.

"King's direct, 400-page mystery writer earned. This encounter the stranger alone a book read in Massachusetts when she takes a short-cut home after a book-club engagement. Violated and left for dead, "Tess picks a stranger that will bring her face-to-face with another stranger: the one inside herself."

you can't fix Crazy!
 A NO-NONSENSE WOMAN'S GUIDE TO WHO TO DATE AND WHO TO DITCH

In romantic relationships, there are some things you can fix and some things you can't. If you want a successful, lasting partnership, you have to be able to tell the difference. You can fix a man who is occasionally challenged, a man who leaves the toilet seat up, and a man whose phone never rings through. But you can't fix a man who only sees you through the screen of his laptop, a man who kisses your neck and then says "I'm a professional," a man whose brain makes you feel like you're in a dream world, a man who says "I'm a professional," a man whose brain makes you feel like you're in a dream world, a man who says "I'm a professional," a man whose brain makes you feel like you're in a dream world."
