POWER-AFFIRMING MENTOR PROGRAM

Bianca Townsend's beautiful photograph captures power prayer partners at the 2010 retreat.

God is Brown Girl Too is pleased to establish its Power-Affirming Mentor Program. This gives us an opportunity to support each other in a meaningful way. The focus is not on career alone but on the continued motivation and spiritual transformation of your mentor or mentee. You can choose to be both. Everyone needs a spiritual partner, motivator, visionary, co-creator to move forth. Register on the back of this form or at www.godisabrowngirltoo.webs.com.

GOD IS A BROWN GIRL TOO®

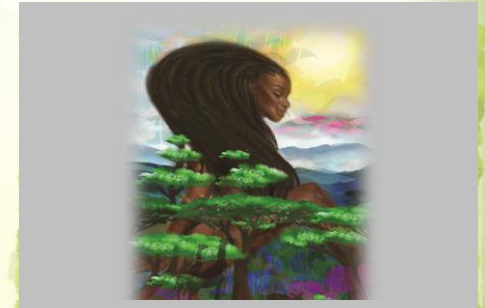

CELEBRATES THE DIVINE WITHIN.

Join us in our celebration of the divine within women of color. We want to improve our lives from the outer – but God is a Brown Girl Too focuses on doing our work from the inner. You can pay as many people as you want to do the work for you but until you master the creative power and potential in you, your life will remain the same. Learn how to listen to the God within, and the rest will take care of itself.

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK

The character Grace from God is a Brown Girl Too © 2011

"If you try, you can feel my love anointing you with each second of my breath. You can hear my love sung in empty spaces of your own silence. You can see my love caressing the brownness of your skin and the crimp in your hair and the centuries in your eyes. You can bathe in love as if you were sitting comfortably in my heart. You can feel the energy of my love, pulling you through the vision of your unlimited expression...."
