FewClix White Glove Evaluation Program

In order to help you leverage FewClix in your environment, we have created a unique evaluation program to provide you with live user input inside your own organization. With our "white glove" program, we do all the heavy lifting to minimize the impact on your staff. The program delivers feedback about how FewClix impacts employee email usage, allowing you to make an informed decision.

The White Glove Evaluation Program supports 25 or more employees over the course of 30 days and includes the following:

- Evaluation licenses for all participants
- Calendar of activities to manage a structured process
- Dedicated technical support
- Participant surveys with usability, benefit, and ROI analyses
- Kickoff and closing webcasts to orient participants and provide feedback
- Illustrated tasks and tips to establish common experience across participants
- Weekly 30 minute progress meetings to ensure quality participation and results

To register for the evaluation program, go to www.fewclix.com/whiteglove
