SAN ANTONIO MARRIOTT RIVERCENTER HOTEL ANNOUNCES COMPLETION OF $20 MILLION RENOVATION

Major renovations at Luxury San Antonio hotel include updated guest rooms, corridors, lounge area and more.

San Antonio, TX – San Antonio is one of the most historic cities in the state of Texas. Visitors from all around the world come to this southern city to visit the Alamo, one of the major sites of the Texas Revolution, and the rich Spanish and American history. However, the surrounding city has evolved with the times, and in keeping with this growing city, the San Antonio Marriott Rivercenter Hotel has finished a large renovation of its property. $20 million dollars went into the revitalization of this spacious River Walk hotel, and guests can enjoy refreshed guest rooms, updated corridors and a redone concierge lounge.

Guests will appreciate the added touches to this San Antonio hotel's accommodations. New artwork accents the walls, while fresh carpet covers the floors. Each room now features a lounge chair and ottoman for relaxation. On the bed, guests will discover aesthetic touches, like a new signature bed skirt and scarf, and comfortable bedding. As an added comfort, rooms now have a digital thermostat for more accurate temperature control. The bathroom has also been refreshed with new and updated amenities. And when guests leave their room, they're greeted by updated carpet, wall vinyl, furniture and artwork.

Guests staying on the hotel's concierge level can now enjoy the fully refreshed concierge lounge featuring the new social area which sports redone carpet and comfortable furniture. Placed around the lounge are seating groups, perfect for socializing. For a quiet moment of reflection, guests can relax in a retreat space. For those who need to work while at this San Antonio hotel, the lounge now also offers an updated computer station to keep guests in contact with businesses and personal contacts afar. And if guests crave something to eat, the San Antonio Marriott Rivercenter Hotel has updated its buffet and bar areas.
