Dallas, TX – The Dallas International Film Festival started off as the American Film Institute Dallas Festival. Regardless of what name it goes by, the festival has consistently presented some of the most cutting edge films to the public and film enthusiasts. This year the Dallas International Film Festival runs from March 31 to April 10 and will showcase dozens of premieres from established and independent filmmakers. Tickets for the 2011 Dallas Film Festival are on sale now, and attendees can purchase different packages to fit their budget and interest.

The Dallas International Film Festival is a citywide event, with the opening screenings taking place at the state of the art Winspear Opera House at the AT&T Performing Arts Center.
