

Are You Catholic?

"Online Catholic Engagement and Evangelization"

www.AreYouCatholic.com

AreYouCatholic.com - An easy way for Catholics to publicly and anonymously share what it means to be Catholic. An active Catholic Church offers its parishioners the ability to share with the public the random acts of charity they perform in the community. All acts are traced back to the church and offer excellent and positive visibility to the Catholic Church and also helps spread the message of Catholicism.

The time is now for a Catholic service as there are none to market currently endorsed by the Catholic Church at this level. Across the world there are nearly 1 billion Catholics, more than both Facebook and Twitter combined.

Common Questions

Why use AreYouCatholic.com?

- The first site ever built just for Catholics with a mission of spreading the faith by showcasing anonymous good actions. Promotes a high level of engagement for parishioners and shines a positive light on a participating parish. High focus is set on reaching the teenage to young adult audience.

Is it safe to have my parish use it?

- Top priority for the credibility of the site is to ensure only Catholic values are showcased. All submissions are automatically tested for spam and then reach an admin here for manual approval. The parish also has full control over all content displayed on the site.

How much does it cost?

- Absolutely free!

How much work is involved?

- No work required. We handle everything. All we ask is that you support the site and let parishioners know the same.

Why not just create a Facebook page?

- AreYouCatholic.com works with Facebook and Twitter. Just a page is not enough as this system is for Catholics only!
