CHARLOTTE HOTEL INTRODUCES THRILLING DEAL FOR CAROWINDS AMUSEMENT PARK Hampton Inn Charlotte Arrowood Road offers special deal just in time for Carowinds' opening day.

Charlotte, NC – Every year there are a few signs that the seasons are changing: plants begin to bloom and flourish, the days get longer and amusement parks open up. Carowinds Amusement Park, the reigning Thrill Capital of the Southeast, opens April 2 just in time for spring. Visitors can enjoy the great weather as they zip down 13 roller coasters and explore all 122 acres of fun. And this year, visitors can have even more fun with Carowinds' extended hours, which start at the end of April.

If guests are looking for hotels near Carowinds, the Hampton Inn Charlotte Arrowood Road Hotel has just announced special Carowinds deals.

- Stay one night, receive two adult tickets to Carowinds, transportation to the park and access to Boomerang Bay Water Park (opens May 28)
- Stay two nights and receive the above, a visitor value pass with hundreds of dollars worth of discounts and a welcoming gift at the hotel.
- Stay a third night at the same rate as the second.

These Charlotte hotel specials offer guests flexibility and great entertainment at Carowinds Theme Park. This Hampton Inn Charlotte Hotel is one of the closest hotels to the Carowinds Theme Park.

Carowinds, which opened in 1973, has expanded over the years to include a countless number of rides and live shows. Roller coasters are diverse and range from traditional wooden constructions to modern day designs, which loop, spin and flip riders. Younger children will love the Peanuts-inspired children's area, featuring lovable favorites like Snoopy and Charlie Brown. As the weather warms up even more, the water park Boomerang Bay invites guests to splash around and speed down thrilling water slides. Both the amusement park and water park are located on the border in between North and South Carolina and is only three miles from the Hampton Inn Charlotte Hotel.
