54th ANNUAL SAN FRANCISCO INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL RETURNS TO BAY AREA Marriott San Francisco Hotels welcome participants, actors, directors and more to four locations.

San Francisco, CA – The San Francisco International Film Festival (commonly abbreviated SFIFF) has made a reputation for itself over its storied 54 year history. Every year, the festival puts on more than 200 film shows and live events and invites some of the biggest names in the movie industry. This year the festival takes place April 21 to May 5 at the Sundance Kabuki Cinemas, the Castro Theatre and other venues around San Francisco.

Those interested in attending the SFIFF should note that the four San Francisco Marriott Hotels have comfortable accommodations available during this time. The four Marriott hotels are:

- San Francisco Airport Marriott Waterfront
- San Francisco Marriott Marquis
- JW Marriott San Francisco Union Square
- The Stanford Court Renaissance San Francisco Hotel

Since the San Francisco International Film Festival has events all over the city, any of these hotels offer participants convenient accommodations near screenings and events.

The San Francisco Film Society, the festival’s presenter, has cultivated the SFIFF into the preeminent gathering of film lovers and makers on the West coast. In fact, the San Francisco Film Festival is the longest running film festival in the United States and sees thousands of attendees every year. Attendees of the festival can look forward to the very best in cinematography, award presentations, panel discussions and much more. However, attendees should book their accommodations soon, as hotels tend to fill up as the festival approaches.
