

Contact: J. Todd Rash
For Anthem Education Group
602-328-5106
trash@anthem.edu

Anthem Education Group Welcomes Dr. J.G. Hadley as Campus President for Anthem College-Phoenix

Phoenix, Arizona, April 7, 2011—Anthem Education Group announced the addition of J.G. Hadley, Ph.D., as campus president of Anthem College—Phoenix.

Dr. Hadley brings with him over eight years of experience in post-secondary education, which includes positions as campus president of Everest College in Colorado, executive director of Vatterott College in Omaha, Nebraska and director of education at Hamilton College in Council Bluffs, Iowa. His other experience includes serving as a human resources executive and corporate leadership trainer. He completed a 22-year career as an Air Force officer as well.

“We are very happy to have someone with Dr. Hadley’s experience on board,” said James Hutton, PhD, Chancellor and CEO of Anthem Education Group.

The College recently added new dental assistant and pharmacy technician diplomas to an already impressive lineup of available programs.

“Anthem College helps students get the necessary education to get started in competitive careers,” said Hadley, who also spends his free time teaching graduate psychology courses online at Northcentral University. “We strive to make quality education accessible to those who need it most.”

#

About Official Campus Name

Originally established in 1982, Anthem College—Phoenix is part of Anthem Education Group (AEG), a Phoenix, Arizona-based family of schools and colleges that provides career-focused training and education programs at 23 accredited institutions in 15 states as well as online. The AEG family of schools includes Anthem College, Anthem College Online, Anthem Career College, Anthem Institute Morrison University, and The Bryman School of Arizona. For more information, visit <http://anthem.edu>.