Reclaiming Victory!
Reclaiming Life!

Diamond Daughters Inc. One word. One action. One woman at a time...

Diamond Daughters Inc. is a nonprofit organization dedicated to ending abuse of women. We organize free speaking engagements, forums and conferences where women from all walks and industries of life come together and share testimony, wisdom, education, prayer, unity and love. We then help facilitate a Diamond Daughters Club where you and the women of your organization can continue to inspire, educate, expand and lift-up each other in their own communities.

We show women how to reclaim victory through reclaiming life. Diamond Daughters Inc., works with churches, schools, prisons, community groups, etc. helping them to set up speaking engagements and self-help clubs geared toward the 3 steps of surviving abuse.

The 1st step, we believe, in ending abuse is talking about it-CLAIM IT!

The 2nd step is DO something to help and EDUCATE ones self.

The 3rd step is to HELP someone else. GIVE back.

The meaning behind 'The Pink Apron' Why the color pink? Pink is the color of universal love and is a quiet color. Pink provides feelings of caring, tenderness, self-worth, & love and acceptance.

We use the apron as a symbol of God's covering for us. It represents our protection, strength, character, achievement, love, and faith all through God's covering...

My waters cover the earth, and majestic mountains rise up out of the sea, declaring My strength, My glory. The skies and heavens are spread out like a canopy over the earth, and so I cover you this day, this moment. ~Habakkuk 2: 14.

Every molecule has My attention. How much more, then, do you have My heart and affectionate attention? All the beauty surrounding you was made as a gift, a habitation in which to dwell and experience My splendid love for you. ~Hebrews 4:13

Don't be dismayed at any minor setback. I will use them for your advantage. Turning things for the good is what I do. I use it to clear your path of all obstacles and distractions. In the process, your confidence will grow as you discover you can do all things through Christ ~Philippians 4:13
