CME accreditation

The 1st European Allergology Conference on Clinical Practices has been awarded by the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS) for a maximum of 12 hours of external CME credits.

Each attendee should claim only those hours of credit that have actually been spent in the educational activity. UEMS works according to the quality standards of the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME), which is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS).

To obtain CME accreditation, please present your personal conference badge to the lecture room hostess when entering and leaving an official session and present the completed UEMS Standard Evaluation Form on Sunday May 8 12h45-13h15 at the Hospitality and Accreditation desk. The accreditation certificate will be granted in the weeks following the event.

In compliance with UEMS/EACCME guidelines, all speakers/chairpersons participating in this program (satellite symposia excluded) have disclosed or indicated potential conflicts of interest which might cause a bias in the presentations. The Organizing Committee is responsible for ensuring that all potential conflicts of interest relevant to the event are declared to the audience prior to the CME activities.
