

Iris Data Services Hires New Vice President of Client Services Leading eDiscovery Company Adds Marilyn Caldwell to Manage Project Management

NEW YORK, April 25, 2011 — Iris Data Services, a leading provider of eDiscovery solutions, announced today they have hired Marilyn Caldwell as their new Vice President of Client Services. Caldwell will head Iris' Project Management organization, the company team responsible for daily management of all discovery services. Iris Data Services is a leading supplier of discovery solutions including eDiscovery, computer forensics, attorney document review, and online hosting.

"Iris has become one of the top litigation support providers in the industry," said Caldwell. "I am excited about leading their Project Management team." In her role as Vice President of Client Services, Caldwell will oversee the project managers interfacing daily with Iris customers.

"Marilyn's unique background combines both vendor and client-side discovery experience," said the president of Iris, Major Baisden. "She is one of the most respected litigation support experts in the industry and will help our clients in all phases of the discovery process with her valuable insight and expertise."

About Marilyn Caldwell

Marilyn Caldwell has over 20 years of industry experience consulting on eDiscovery, management of evidence and document review in complex litigation for law firms and vendor environments. During her law firm tenure, she consulted with clients and advised both attorneys and firm management regarding the identification, preservation, processing, management and presentation of electronically stored information (ESI). Throughout her career in the litigation support industry, Caldwell has built successful teams to leverage technology and facilitate the practice of law, from early case assessment through trial. She has presented at industry events such as LegalTech New York, the CIO Conference in New York and the International Legal Technology Association (ILTA) annual meeting, and is considered a subject matter expert for discovery technologies. Caldwell was the President of the East Coast Association of Litigation Support Managers (ECALSM), has been a member of the faculty at the Georgetown University Law Center E-Discovery Training Academy, and has spoken at the Georgetown E-Discovery Practice Support Forum.
