

OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE DECISION MAKER

QUEST LEADERSHIP COMMUNITY

WHAT IS THE QLC?

The Quest Leadership Community, which takes its members to a new level of networking and business engagement, is the ultimate ongoing learning experience for CIOs and their direct reports. The QLC goes beyond the use of applications and delves into timely leadership and IT management issues from a strategic perspective. This unique community allows for QLC members to gain and share insights that will improve not only how they use their applications, but more importantly, how they leverage IT in running their businesses.

The QLC and The Advisory Council (TAC), which provides IT organizations with access to objective, actionable advice for resolving IT issues, have formed an official partnership, which opens TAC's network of IT experts and its benchmarking services to QLC members, giving them a competitive industry edge.
