Central Consulting Group Announce Major Enhancements to Electronic Invoicing for Deltek Vision

Release 4 to launch at Deltek Insight 2011 Conference Improves invoicing process through enhanced control and communications

Minneapolis, MN—May 10, 2011—Central Consulting Group (CCG) today announces the Release 4.0 of its Electronic Invoicing Module for Deltek Vision. This new release enables customers to configure the system to meet their unique requirements while improving communications processes. Release 4 of Electronic Invoicing will be officially launched at the Deltek Insight 2011 User Conference, which takes place May 16 through May 19, in Nashville, TN.

New features include User Defined Columns, Main Grid Enhancements, PDF Markup Enhancements, Email Enhancements and Expanded Reporting Options. Release 4 of Electronic Invoicing provides customers with:

Improved Control – Expanded user defined columns allow users to customize Electronic Invoicing placing information immediately at their fingertips.

Expanded Configurability – Customers are now able to freeze columns ensuring precise views tailored to their unique needs. In addition, users can see summary rows and leverage other new configuration options.

Enhanced Invoice Processes – PDF-Markup Enhancements include text and image user-defined stamps such as a check mark or “Approved” stamp. New reports also help customers get access to the information they need to improve their invoicing processes.

Improved Communications – Customers can now configure CCG Email Service to clear, ignore, suspend, or resume emails to ensure communications are timely and accurate.

Electronic Invoicing release 4.0 expands on the proven ability to help organizations streamline and automate the traditionally complex invoice review process. Electronic Invoicing from CCG helps customers like RSP Architects, EMA, Inc. and Birdsell Services Group shorten the A/R cycle, improve invoice tracking, decrease errors and go paperless.

“Our Electronic Invoicing customers consistently look to CCG to improve processes and efficiencies,” says Jim Falkanger, Managing Partner of CCG. “This new release offers even more configurability and control to help our clients meet those goals.”

You can learn more about Release 4 of Electronic Invoicing Module for Deltek Vision at the Deltek Insight 2011 User Conference or by contacting CCG at 1-866-511-5710.
