SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA HOTEL WELCOMES TRIATHLETES TO THE METRO TRIATHLON

Metro Triathlon spectators and participants flock to San Jose for the 2011 race. The San Jose Marriott Hotel offers accommodations near the starting point.

San Jose, CA – Triathlons are not for the faint of heart. The three-part race challenges the endurance of each participant on land and sea. The Metro Triathlon, an Olympic distance race, consists of a 1.5k swim, a 40k bike course and a 10k run. Participants line up on May 22, 2011, at Lake Almaden Park in San Jose. For those who are taking part in the Metro Triathlon, the San Jose Marriott offers accommodations near the starting line. This luxurious Downtown San Jose, CA hotel is an ideal choice for volunteers, participants and spectators alike. To learn more about this San Jose, California hotel, visit www.marriott.com/SJCSJ.

The San Jose Marriott Hotel is located just seven miles away from the starting point. Aside from the comfortable rooms and thoughtful amenities like wireless high-speed Internet access and signature Marriott bedding, this hotel also offers a special breakfast package, perfect for those participating in the Metro Triathlon. The Breakfast Package allows guests to fuel up before a demanding race. This package is available now and can be booked online through the San Jose Marriott Hotel website using promotional code S4B.

Those who wish to register for the Metro Triathlon should visit the race website. Each participant receives “swag” including a race shirt, a race backpack and a finishing medal—in addition to bragging rights. Considered one of the most daunting displays of human endurance, a triathlon is something every participant should be proud to take part in, regardless of what place they finish in.
