

Please direct inquiries to:
Saurabh Majumdar
saurabh@webexcelsolutions.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: May 23, 2011

WebExcel Solutions Opens New Delivery Centre in New Delhi

LEICESTER, UK & NOIDA, INDIA – WebExcel Solutions Limited, a company that provides high-quality software solutions and services to clients around the world, has announced the opening of its newest delivery centre in Noida, NCR, New Delhi, India.

The centre will serve as the new marketing arm of the company and will operate under the banner of WebExcel Media. The second of the company's delivery centers in India, the new facility will provide an enhanced level of software service and support to both domestic and international clients.

"With the launch of WebExcel Media, we are further improving our outstanding levels of service that we provide to our clients on a daily basis," said Saurabh Majumdar, CEO of WebExcel Solutions. "In addition, the software solutions arm of our company will benefit greatly from the convenience of this new facility."

WebExcel Solutions is an international application software development and outsourcing company that provides offshore software development, IT consulting services, web-based application development, data migration and legacy migrations. It works with organizations of all sizes to maximize investments in information technology and to find opportunities and efficiencies through the delivery of top-quality software solutions.

With the launch of the new centre, WebExcel Media is unveiling its new range of services for its clients, offering an array of digital marketing services like SEO and SEM, paid search campaign management, social media marketing, email marketing and affiliate marketing.

"We are truly excited about the potential that WebExcel Media has in helping us deliver some of the best digital media solutions in the world to more clients than ever before," Majumdar said.

The New Delhi Centre will open in early June 2011. For more information on WebExcel Solutions, visit <http://www.webexcelsolutions.com>.

###