

PHILLIPS de PURY & COMPANY IS PROUD TO ANNOUNCE THE LAUNCH OF ITS NEW EXHIBITION AND RETAIL GALLERY AT CLARIDGE'S LONDON

OPENING ON 1ST JUNE AT 45-47 BROOK STREET W1

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

London – Further to success of the opening of 450 Park Avenue and the recent New York Contemporary auction, Phillips de Pury & Company continues to expand with a new prime location in the prestigious Claridge's in Mayfair, London. The space will showcase highlights of all the Phillips de Pury & Company sales including Contemporary Art, Design, Photography and Jewels as well as featuring curated selling exhibitions.

“The opening of a new exhibition and retail gallery at Claridge's in London will allow us to highlight some of our best works in a prime location that will ideally complement our state of the art sale room of Howick Place. As in New York where we have great spaces both uptown and downtown we are ideally placed in London to service our international clientele.” Simon de Pury, Chairman Phillips de Pury & Company.

The new double fronted exhibition and retail space at 45-47 Brook Street, W1 London will open on 1st June showcasing highlights of the forthcoming Jewels Auction on June 7th and of the London June 27th Contemporary Art Evening Sale from 1st June – 16th June.
