egoCertified™

You Earned It.

Choosing You From a Crowd

Distinguish Yourself From Others

The “crowd” is falsifying their credentials on resumes to get the job you deserve. Business Owners and hiring managers are having a difficult time knowing who is telling the truth and who is not. egoCertified™ is a factual report easy for employers to see you are qualified.

Background Check Reports Contain Errors

When your job is relying on the traditional background check report, will it be error-free? Will you be passed over because of errors? Fair Credit Consumer Rights exist because the reports contain errors. Although you are supposed to be notified with “pre-adverse action” giving you an opportunity to correct false information, has it already tainted you? You control the egoCertified™ report by fixing issues and errors before using it to apply for a job. The employer may still run a traditional report but yours is there as a comparison, and our report is quality controlled and fully retraceable with logging included.
