

Scrubs for Pets

Dog Wearing Head Cone

What is this thing on my head? Is this some sort of punishment? I mean yes, occasionally I may be a little less than perfect. But tell me, who is perfect? So I eat chocolate cake off the counter. If you didn't leave it out, I would not be so tempted. Maybe I track mud in from outside and trace it all over your freshly clean carpet. And once in a while I may have an "accident" in the house, or leave you a "surprise" when you come home. But come on, do you really expect me to hold it? Is that why you are putting me through this?

I thought I was "man's best friend," but if that were really true, you would have bought me Scrubs for Pets. You would have saved me all of this embarrassment and humiliation. Don't you know that Scrubs for Pets protects me from licking or getting dirt in an open wound leading to possible infection? If you have any love for me at all, you would buy me Scrubs for Pets right away.

P.S. They come in nine different sizes so you are sure to find one that will fit me!

Dog Wearing Scrubs for Pets

How did I get so lucky as to have such a wonderful owner as you? Now that I have Scrubs for Pets I know your love for me is true. All of the other dogs are jealous of me because I can heal in comfort. They all know how much you care for and love me.

After my surgery I was waiting in the back with the other dogs and I saw the vet walk towards me with one of those awful cones. I started trembling because I was convinced this was my time. Thankfully she walked over to Sparky, the dog next to me, and placed the cone around his neck. The look on his face was pure misery. I was still convinced the vet would be back for me; however, imagine my surprise when she returned with a Scrub for Pets!

Now that I'm back home I walk around the neighborhood with my head held high. I know that I am the envy of all the other dogs out there that are not as lucky as I because their parents didn't buy them Scrubs for Pets!
