

NJATA 2011 Membership Meeting

Creative Approaches and Programs for Children and Adolescents on the Autism Spectrum

Saturday, Oct. 22, 2011

JFK School, 311 South 10th Street. Newark, New Jersey 07103. Convenient to the South Orange NJ Transit Train Station, and the Garden State Pkwy and Route 280.

The Program for the day includes:

Continental Breakfast 8:30-9:00 am

Morning NJATA membership meeting, where we will be holding elections for our new slate of board members for 2012-2014 from 9-10 am

Break 10:00-10:10 am

Morning panel discussion with experts on working with children on the Autism/Aspergers spectrum from 10:10-11:45 am

Lunch (provided) 12:00 pm -1:00 pm

Afternoon breakout sessions on various topics involving working with children and adolescents on the autism spectrum. 1:00 – 2:00 pm

Evaluations, CEC form distribution, Wrap-Up 2:00-2:30 pm

2.5 CEC's have been approved by AATA. Secure parking onsite w/ additional parking nearby.

Below are the presenters who will be on the panel, and their afternoon breakout sessions are listed below:

“Getting Social Information From and Giving Social Information to Children and Teens with Aspergers, High Functioning Autism and PDD-NOS”

-Barbara Cooper, ATR-BC, LMHC

“Using Creativity in the Heartsong Program with Children on the Spectrum”

-Pamela Ullmann, ATR-BC, LCAT, CCLS and Allegra Themmen, MA, MT-BC, LPC

“Use of Masks and Role Play with Youth on the Autism Spectrum”

-Brooke Campbell, RDT/BCT, LCAT and Rita Klachkin, ATR-BC, LPC, LCAT

“The Creative Process with Two Children on the Autism Spectrum: A Case Study”

-Dana Whiddon, ATR-BC, LCAT

Free for NJATA members, both students and professionals.

40.00 Non Member Professionals

20.00 Non member students with student ID

To RSVP, please email NJATA President, Rita Klachkin at rbeeklach@gmail.com

Please indicate which afternoon breakout session you prefer.

Sorry, NJATA cannot offer any refunds.