

The caliber and experience of EIM faculty is unparalleled.

Academia

- More than 80% of EIM's highly specialized faculty hold a doctorate in physical therapy
- EIM's professors have collectively taught 220 University courses and delivered more than 1370 keynote speeches and presentations
- EIM's faculty have been selected for more than 27 teaching awards including the William Gould Memorial Faculty Award, the Excellence in Teaching Award from Regis University, the James A. Gould Excellence in Teaching Orthopaedic Physical Therapy Award, and the Outstanding Clinical Educator Award

Research

- EIM's expert researchers have secured more than 95 physical therapy research grants totaling over $10.5 million
- Combined, EIM faculty members have published more than 420 peer-reviewed publications and 330 abstracts
- Distinguished EIM professors have received more than 65 research awards such as the Discovery Health Clinical Excellence Award in Back Care, the Ruby Decker Award, the Jack Walker Award, and the U.S. Air Force Outstanding Achievement in Clinical Research Award

Practice Management

- Members of EIM's faculty have established more than 40 different business organizations
- EIM's team of experts have held positions in more than 40 state professional organizations
- Many of EIM's faculty members have held more than 115 different advisory positions at the national and international level

(888) 709-7096

www.EvidenceInMotion.com