Barbados Hotel Welcomes Guests to Biggest Festival with Special Rate

As people around Barbados celebrate Crop Over, guests are arriving at the Courtyard Bridgetown Hotel to enjoy the festivities and the savings.

Bridgetown, Barbados – The Crop Over Festival in Barbados is one of the nation’s largest, most vibrant festivals. The month long celebration, which concludes August 1, commemorates the island’s long history of harvesting sugar cane, which makes the Crop Over Festival the “Sweetest Summer Festival.” The Courtyard Bridgetown Hotel welcomes guests who wish to join the festivities with a special hotel rate. During the festival, guests can book rooms starting at discounted rates starting at $159/night. This Barbados hotel special rate makes the sweetest summer festival even sweeter, as guests can experience a truly memorable Barbados vacation while paying less.

The Crop Over festival truly features something for everyone. Live music, authentic ceremonies, unique art, parades, competitions and much more comprise the month long festivities. Traditional favorites make a triumphant return, including Grand Kadooment Day, where thousands of costumed performers fill the streets dancing to popular Barbadian Calypso. In fact, visitors will be hard pressed to find an event that doesn’t involve music, as the rich culture of Barbados knows how to create the most infectious, upbeat music in the Caribbean. During the course of the festival, visitors will be treated to musical competitions, where bands and Calypsonians performing a number of Barbadian Calypsos vie for the crowd’s affection.

Guests staying at this hotel in Barbados have easy access to many of the festivals events. Located in the Garrison Historic District, the Courtyard Bridgetown Hotel positions visitors near most of the festival events. With its special rates and ideal location, this hotel in Bridgetown is the perfect place to stay to experience the most of the Crop Over Festival.
