

THE MAP AHEAD: F.E.A.S.T. SYMPOSIUM 2011

November 3-4, 2011

Alexandria, Virginia

Parents, clinicians, activists:
Register Now!

WHERE

Old Town Alexandria (U.S.A)

(just outside Washington, DC and minutes from Reagan National Airport)

REGISTER NOW: Space is Limited

Parent/Family Members: $250

General Registration: $350

Fee Includes:

- Breakfast, Lunch, and Snacks
- Expert presentations and panel discussions
- Opportunities to record your family story
- Learning Room of family-oriented tools
- Conference Concierge Team

The Parent Community Charts A New Course for Activism, Treatment, and Research of Eating Disorders

Keynote Presentation by:

Dr. Thomas R. Insel, NIMH

Special Guest Speaker:

Parent Activist Pioneer, Ruth Sullivan, Co-Founder of Autism Society of America

Dr. James Lock, Stanford * Dr. Cynthia Bulik, UNC * Dr. Walter Kaye, UCSD * Dr. Julie O'Toole, Kartini Clinic * Kitty Westin, Emily Program * Susan Ringwood, BEAT * Dr. Jeanine Cogan, EDC * Darcy Gruttadaro, NAMI

Join parents and professionals from all over the world in creating a renewed map of options and actions for families. A new era of science-based, family inclusive, and truly optimistic eating disorder treatment begins now. Be part of the movement to move forward from the legacy of blame and shame to being an active community collaborating with the scientific community.

SPONSORED BY

F.E.A.S.T., an international non-profit charity supporting parents and caregivers of eating disorder patients

feast-ed.org

Contact F.E.A.S.T. +1 (540) 227-8518