Port of Spain Trinidad Hotel Prepares for Holiday Season with New Hotel Deal

As the summer months come to a close, vacationers look ahead to the winter months. The Courtyard Port of Spain Hotel welcomes holiday travelers with new specials.

Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago – While the traditional winter holiday scene includes snow capped hills and frosted windows, one Port of Spain, Trinidad, hotel offers a much warmer take on Christmas and New Year's Eve. This winter, holiday travelers should embrace the Southern Caribbean way of celebrating at the Courtyard Port of Spain:

warm weather, sandy beaches and friendly hospitality, mixed with Santa Claus and New Year's Eve parties.

Aside from the enjoyable weather and holiday festivities, this Trinidad hotel also offers two special holiday packages. Both of these holiday packages include a traditional Trinidadian breakfast for two adults and two kids and $50 dinner credit per room. Breakfast treats include smoked ham and pastelles.

For guests experiencing the Christmas holiday in Trinidad, children are invited to enjoy treats with Santa Claus. New Year's Eve travelers can participate in a cocktail hour for adults to welcome in 2012.

Both of these Holiday in Trinidad packages are available on December 15, 2011, until January 4, 2012, using promotional code PKG. These rates start as low as $159/night, so families everywhere can enjoy a Trinidad vacation to celebrate the holidays. Guests must stay a minimum of three nights to take advantage of either holiday vacation package.

Guests should start formulating their Christmas and New Year's Eve plans today, as holiday travel tends to become more expensive closer to the season. Rooms at the Courtyard Port of Spain Hotel fill up quickly, as guests everywhere attempt to flee the cold and enjoy the winter holidays in paradise.
