South Florida Roofer Recognized for Installation Excellence

(Lake Worth, Florida) As a result of their highly trained staff and dedication to quality, Garabar, Inc., a premier roofing contractor in South Florida, was selected as an Installation Excellence award winner by GAF and their Master Elite Certification Program. This is yet another validation of Garabar's dedication to roofing excellence. Garabar, Inc. has been a Master Elite Certified Contractor since 2008 and has offered the benefits of the certification program to homeowners throughout Southeast Florida. Using only the very best materials and highly trained crews, Garabar has installed hundreds of roofs throughout Broward, Palm Beach and Martin counties with the utmost in care and customer service.

The GAF Master Elite Contractor certification program has given homeowners peace of mind for almost 15 years. This program certifies the very best contractors throughout the country and by hiring a Master Elite roofing contractor, homeowners gain access to exclusive warranties backed by GAF Materials Corp., the largest roofing material manufacturer in North America.

"We are very proud to be a part of the GAF Master Elite program," says Ara Garibian president and qualifier of Garabar, Inc. "and it's great to know that our hard work has been recognized. Being one of only 17 Installation Excellence award winners in Florida is a real honor." GAF and Garabar, Inc. have partnered on over 100 roofs in South Florida and continue to develop their relationship by offering families the peace of mind that they need. "Our Master Elite Certification is an important part of our business. We believe in a homeowner receiving only the best – a roofing system that is guaranteed, not only by the roofer, but by the manufacturer as well," says Garibian. "We look forward to offering quality GAF materials and exceptional Garabar service now and well into the future."
