Tucson Resort Celebrates University of Arizona Football with Low Hotel Rate

It is football season again in Arizona, and for football fans—especially alumni and fans of the University of Arizona Wildcats—that means taking advantage of a fantastic seasonal special at the JW Marriott Tucson Starr Pass Resort & Spa

Tucson, AZ - Just minutes away from the University of Arizona's historic Arizona Stadium and iconic Sentinel Peak, the JW Marriott Starr Pass Resort & Spa offers guests a stunning location convenient to the very best of college football. This season promises even more drama and excitement than last year as the University of Arizona Wildcats do battle on the gridiron against a gauntlet of opponents, including home matchups against PAC-12 rivals Stanford and Oregon in September. With twelve returning starters, including Heisman hopeful Nick Foles, the Wildcats look poised to make a run. And just in time for the Stanford home game, the JW Marriott Starr Pass Resort & Spa has announced a very special hotel deal. The Wild About The Cats At Starr Pass Tucson Hotel Deal offers football fans and their families fantastic seasonal rates starting at an incredibly low $159/night.

With this special low rate, fans can apply the extra cash to important things like U of A hoodies and foam fingers, great seats at the stadium, and tailgating supplies. To book this rate, visit the Tucson resort's website, go to their Find Deals page and use promotional code UAZ.

While coming to town to enjoy Wildcat football is a great reason to stay at the JW Marriott Tucson Starr Pass Resort & Spa, the fabulous array of perks and amenities included in the Wild About The Cats At Starr Pass hotel special offers guests of all ages and interests the chance to make their stay truly special.

Golfers can take advantage of unlimited rounds of golf on Starr Pass' top-rated 27-hole Arnold Palmer Signature Golf Facility, with a double-loaded driving range, 20,000 square foot clubhouse, and a top-quality golf shop. Condé Nast Traveler magazine recently rated JW Marriott Starr Pass Resort & Spa in Tucson among the world's top 125 golf resorts, and among the top 10 golf resorts in Arizona.

For children ages 4 to 12, Starr Pass' Rising Starr Kids' Club offers a half or full day of activities during the weekend. A full-day session (9am to 4pm) is $75.00 per child including lunch, while a half-day session (9am to 12pm or 1pm to 4pm) is $45.00 per child including a snack. In addition, Starr Pass' restaurants offer kids' menus specially designed for younger tastes.

For teens, Blur Teen Lounge is a new addition to Starr Pass this year, offering guests age 13 to 18 a place of their own to kick back, have fun and enjoy the latest games, technology, and movies. Open every Thursday through Saturday from 12pm to 6pm, Blur features Apple iPad 2s for teens to access their email or social media accounts, the latest motion-tracking game systems from Xbox and PlayStation, and a movie area with a 46" LCD HDTV and a library of DVDs. Full access to the lounge and all of its features is available for $25 per teen per day. Parents may enter only when accompanied by a teen.

And for the adults in the family, complimentary access to the fitness center at the Hashani Spa offers plenty of cardio and weight machines and spectacular views of the surrounding mountains for a rejuvenating workout. The spa facility also includes a whirlpool, steam room, and sauna. Guests can also enjoy the spa's private pool. Spa treatments and fitness classes or personal training sessions are available for a fee.
