Courtyard Miami Hotel Completes Major Renovations

Courtyard Miami Coconut Grove Hotel's renovations improve everything from guest rooms to dining services and public spaces.

Miami, FL – One of the best Miami hotels has just gotten better. The Courtyard Miami Coconut Grove Hotel completed an extensive renovation and upgraded to its entire property. Nearly every aspect of this hotel has been updated in some way, from the public spaces to the individual guest rooms.

Upon entering this Coconut Grove Miami hotel, visitors will notice the new lobby. Finished in November 2010, the lobby layout now offers more open space, thanks in large part to the removal of the front desk. Instead, guests check in at welcoming pedestals, offering more interactivity between guests and staff.

Near the welcoming pedestals is the new Bistro - Eat. Drink. Connect, offering fresh American-inspired entrees for breakfast and dinner. For late night cravings, the new Market sells snacks, beverages and sundries 24 hours a day. Guests can also refresh in the mornings with Starbucks® Coffee, served by the hotel's barista.

Also near the entrance, guests can discover the GoBoard®. This unique touch screen, 52" LCD television allows guests to explore the local area, view weather reports, get the latest news and sports scores.

Other additions to the lobby include an extended business center and a home theater area, which includes a comfortable sectional sofa and a 50" flat screen television with regular channels.

After checking in, guests will stay in updated accommodations. Nearly aspect of the guest rooms has been refreshed, from the bedroom to the bathroom. In each room guests will discover a 37" flat screen HD TV, new carpets, wall coverings, artwork, seating and bedding. These new additions make the Courtyard Miami Coconut Grove Hotel one of the best Miami hotels near the beach.

Outside of this Miami hotel, guests will discover one more exceptional addition: an infinity edge pool. Surrounding the pool is a newly furnished patio and new semi-private cabanas—a perfect spot to enjoy the exceptional Miami weather.
