

Carren Smith - Quantum Leadership Group and Bali Bombing Survivor

“Wow, what a fantastic interview I've just had with Ludwina from Red Tent Radio!! It was great to intelligently engage with her about the topic of Authenticity and Professional Speaking. Ludwina really related to me personally and professionally which created an amazing rapport where the conversation was able to flow like old friends!! This, I believe, is the sign of a true professional and someone who actually values what her audience hears as opposed to just doing the interview by rote.

Thank you so much Ludwina for providing such an empowering platform to share my story and for uncovering snippets I've never shared before. You are extraordinary and this has been one of the best interviews I've ever participated in!”

Bernadette Schwerdt - Australian School of Copywriting

“I was just interviewed by Ludwina on Red Tent Radio – her high energy style and ability to quickly get to the essence of what’s important for business owners is really impressive. She asks the questions that people want to ask but don’t.

If you want real advice from real experts you should listen to her radio interviews. She’s fast, she’s funny and she’s fabulous! Thanks for inviting me on Ludwina. “

Jonathan Flora, Multi Award Winning Film Producer and Director - 'Lt Dan Band: For the Common Good' starring Gary Sinise

"Imagine my thrill to hear that someone in Australia was interested in our American movie about supporting our men and women in uniform, whether they be military or first responders. Now imagine how pleased I was after being interviewed by Ludwina on Red Tent Radio!

Ludwina impressed me by not only her care and concern of the subject matter of our movie that supporting a nation's defenders and their families knows no boundaries and cares not for who's country's patch is on the sleeve, but also her desire and ability to discuss business experiences and insights in a very conversational manner. I enjoyed our time together as we shared antidotes, filmmaking and storytelling combined with business practices both conventional and not so conventional, perhaps even ground breaking. I appreciate how Ludwina drove home the position of so many successes never achieved because there was no risk taken, not having because of one not asking. Never say no for anyone and the greater the risk, the greater the gain. That is the entrepreneurial spirit. It is alive and well and thank you for fanning the flame for your listeners.

I thank you Ludwina for helping to spread the word and work of "Lt. Dan", Gary Sinise, and our movie, "Lt. Dan Band: For The Common Good!"

This has been a journey I will never forget and meeting my new friend "Down Under" along the way is an honor I cherish."

Rod Moore - Profit Minute, Automated Client Attraction System

"Over the last five years I have been asked to do literally hundreds of interviews on topics including Attraction Marketing, Marketing for Small Business and Small Business Success. I have to say that the interview with Ludwina for the Red Tent Radio was a pleasant surprise. As a result of Ludwina's obvious skill in interviewing the direction of our interview took me by surprise.

We ended up having a conversation about some deeply personal issues which have helped to shape and mould my beliefs and philosophies around business in recent times ... I am not sure if this would have happened with any other interviewer. Great job Ludwina... you have that rare talent of getting to the deeper, more complex, yet more fascinating points that make a truly great interview."

Mia Munro - Empowered Success

"I accepted the opportunity to be interviewed by inspirational woman Ludwina

Dautovic recently through Red Tent Radio. What flow we experienced as two business minds came together to discuss current business topics where we could delve into issues of real relevance to successful business women.

To be a part of a movement that values a women's desire to contribute massively through their own entrepreneurial spirit is something I am honoured for. Thank you Ludwina for giving us these opportunities to share wisdom that makes a significant difference."

Shaune Clarke - 6 Figure Speaker Training

"As you know Ludwina -- I have conducted a 6-week tele-coaching program on how to create dynamic interviews.

It's always a sensational experience when you have a great interview conducted by someone who can stimulate 'new thought' and that's exactly what you did.

I want to have the interview transcribed as content for my new book. It was that strong!

Not only were you able to recognise opportunity' in the interview (rare) -- you were particularly good at adding your own insights and simultaneously 'bring it back' to me the interviewee. Phenomenal. Thank you!!"
