OFFERS INFORMED Analysis on critical issues of the day.

Do any of these 3 Hot Topics sound like stories that would interest your Listeners?

HOT TOPIC #1: Is it Obama, Racists, Tyrants or Terrorists?

...here is a sampling...

- Congressman Andre Carson (D-IN), the second Muslim member of the House and the Congressional Black Caucus says, "love to see us as second-class citizens" and "some of them in Congress right now of this Tea Party movement would love to see you and me ... hanging on a tree."
- Rep. Maxine Waters (D-CA) says that "the Tea Party can go straight to Hell."
- Vice President Joe Biden refers to House Members by stating that they "acted like terrorists."
- Rep. Mike Doyle (D-PA) adds his own rendition; "We have negotiated with terrorists. This small group of terrorists has made it impossible to spend any money."

Obama was introduced as evidence of Post-Racial America and from the attempts on Rep. Gabrielle Gifford's life along came the Administration's plea for a kinder, softer and gentler Political Rhetoric yet the question remains: What has happened and is Success-America the price of Political Failure?

HOT TOPIC #2: Labor Day 2012 - A By-Gone Era!

...here is a sampling...

- Corporations in pursuit of near-term profit have enriched Wall Street, shareholders and corporate CEOs the price for which has devastated American employment, household incomes, tax base, and the outlook for the US economy: Should we Rename Labor Day to "Lay to Waste Day?"
- Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) on Friday, September 2, says zero net new jobs were created in August yet Mexico's unemployment rate is reported at only 3.4%: Is the price of American Jobs the Price of Global Economics?
- Keynesian economists, such as Paul Krugman and Robert Reich, say that government would create new jobs by adding more stimulus gimmicks: But how does increasing Federal Debt help Americans?
- The US economy has been de-industrializing, moving from a developed to an underdeveloped economy and even if the US economy manages to eke out new jobs you say they are of No use as they are only non-tradable Jobs: What are Non-Tradable Jobs and why do you say they are Useless?
- You've updated your Unemployment Calculations to suggest that the U.S. Unemployment rate is now over 23.4%: Why are you numbers nearly 2.6 times the Governments Official 9.1% rate?

HOT TOPIC #3: The Economy: Jobs, Mortgage Meltdown & Bank Nu Bailout!

...here is a sampling...

- You are well known for your success as a business and financial analyst; explain the concept of “Reformulation.”
- In your recent article, Restoring the U.S. Housing & Mortgage Markets, you say that “Although the Notional Value of Debt is absolutely stated, the Value of the Asset upon which it is attached is NOT.” Is this the heart of the Mortgage Crisis? Is it Solvable?
- Many say that Small Business is the key to restarting the U.S. Economy: What is the best way to create jobs?
- When you say “...it’s not sufficient just to create jobs, we need to restore the wealth creating model this country perfected.” What’s the difference?
- Also in your Restoring the U.S. Housing... Article, you say “How do we do fix the Mortgage Mess without it appearing as yet another Bailout?” Do you really think the Gov’t is trying to save Banks instead of American Households?
