

About The Children's Storefront

The Children's Storefront is an independent, tuition-free school in Harlem with more than 45 years of providing a comprehensive education to children of varied academic strengths from preschool through eighth grade. The work of the Children's Storefront is grounded in the conviction that every child deserves the opportunity for an excellent education and the belief that a lack of financial resources should never deprive a child of a top-tier education. The organization works in partnership with families and community members to prepare children academically, socially and emotionally for further education, empowering each child to reach his or her potential. The Children's Storefront inspires the imagination, creativity and love of learning inherent in all children and promotes values of hard work, mutual respect and service to society in a structured and joyful environment. The Children's Storefront provides the support tools that are individually tailored to ensure each student's success and is focused on each student's daily achievement as a step towards a better future.

Contact:

Danielle S. Burenstein

(212) 427-7900 x 224

dburenstein@cstorefront.org