Marriott Hotel Near Salem, MA Prepares Spooky Halloween Deal

Just in time for Halloween, the Boston Marriott Peabody Hotel offers a new hotel deal that lets guests explore the most famous attractions in Salem.

Boston, MA – The leaves are turning, the temperature has dropped and Halloween is fast approaching! The Boston Marriott Peabody Hotel has prepared the perfect hotel deal for guests looking to experience Halloween the proper way: with plenty of treats and even more tricks. The Passport to Salem Escape! Package lets guests choose their own adventure and offers two tickets to four Salem attractions.

To book this Peabody hotel deal, visit the Peabody hotel packages page and use promotional code ARN. For guests who cannot make it to this Peabody, MA hotel by Halloween, the Passport to Salem deal is available until December 31, 2011.

Of all the Peabody hotel deals, the Passport to Salem deal might be the best suited for the Halloween season. Guests staying at this Peabody hotel can explore the haunted sites of Salem, including the House of Seven Gables, the Salem Witch Museum and the Peabody Essex Museum*.

The House of Seven Gables, built in 1668, offers visitors a chance to walk back in time to old Salem. This historic house has a long history of owners, including Captain Samuel Ingersoll who died at sea. Who knows? Visitors who travel to the ancient house on Halloween may be able to spy the wandering captain touring his old house.

Particularly around Halloween, visitors to Salem can discover all kinds of exciting haunts to explore. The Salem Witch Museum explores the infamous Salem Witch Trials and tries to explain the zeitgeist of the time period. Another Salem attraction included in this Peabody hotel package is the Salem Trolley. This historic trolley takes visitors all over the town, perfect for those who wish to see more on Halloween.

Guests who have stayed at the Boston Marriott Peabody Hotel will agree that this beloved hotel near Salem, MA is more of a treat than a trick.
