Marriott San Antonio Hotels Announce Special Golf Package for Visitors to the Riverwalk

The San Antonio Marriott Riverwalk Hotel and the San Antonio Marriott Rivercenter Hotel have partnered with Texas' oldest public golf course in a new hotel deal.

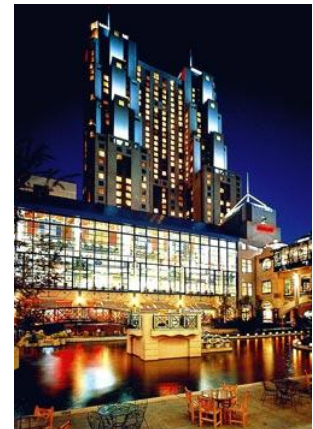

San Antonio, TX – San Antonio is home to a number of exceptional, high-profile attractions. The two most well-known are the Alamo and the River Walk; however, there is another attraction that deserves just as much attention: Brackenridge Golf Course. The oldest public golf course in Texas, Brackenridge Golf Course has become a favorite golfing spot in San Antonio, and two Marriott San Antonio hotels want guests to tee up on this nearby golf course.

The San Antonio Marriott Riverwalk Hotel and the San Antonio Rivercenter Hotel have created an exciting golfing package. The Escape! Golf Packages in San Antonio hotel deal includes a round of golf at Brackenridge Golf Course and accommodations at either Marriott San Antonio hotel. For guests who want to invite friends to their tee time, this golf hotel deal can also be purchased as a two-person outing.

Regardless which version guests choose, the Escape! Golf Packages include both a voucher for one 18-hole round, with green and cart fees covered. This package is available now until June 1, 2012, using promotional code GOF. Furthermore, guests can book this deal through either Marriott San Antonio hotel website.

The Brackenridge Golf Course, holding the distinction of oldest public golf course in Texas, also has the honor of being the first host of the Texas Open Golf Tournament, which took place in 1922. Not only that, but the Brackenridge Golf Course was also the first course to be inducted into the Texas Golf Hall of Fame. Located just a few miles from the Marriott hotels in San Antonio, the Brackenridge Golf Course is an exceptional place for golfers of all skill levels to test their merit.
