Call the sales staff or contact the customer service team online; ask a few questions you care or perhaps you don't care so much. It's a test. You can get further information about these dresses shops. More importantly, the conversation will show if they are friendly, helpful and professional. You may get a primary impression of this shop from the sales staff or customer service group.

Now it's time to visit the local dress shops in person and view the dress webs carefully. A pleasing and reliable dress shop should be well-organized, spacious, clean and bright. It's unlikely that you'll buy your summer wedding dress from a shop where you want to leave immediately. Talk with the sales people or consultants about some details of your dream wedding dress. For online bridal stores, you need to see if it's easy for you to navigate through the pages, if they have enough supplies for you to choose from, if they give information in an organized way.

As the e-business prospers and you can always get a good price at online stores, you may prefer to buy from an online wedding dress shop. It's a good idea but you need to be very clear about some items such as how to pay, the quality guarantee, the total shipping time, the return policy and the after sale service.

I'm sure you've got the final one or two winners in your mind. Just go and find your beautiful wedding dress in your most reliable dress shop.
