JW Marriott Mexico City Hotel Unveils New Wedding Amenities

A favorite destination for wedding events in Mexico City, the JW Marriott Mexico City Hotel now offers a new wedding catering menu.

Mexico City, Mexico - Getting married in Mexico is one of the most anticipated events for brides and grooms, as well as for the family and friends; an event that has to be perfect to the last detail. This necessity for detail and precision is why JW Marriott Mexico City Hotel has changed its strategy and renovated its services to become, once again, one of the best hotels in Mexico City to have a wedding reception. Regardless of the desired ceremony theme, the JW Marriott Mexico City Hotel can realize any type of wedding, from classical and elegant to modern and refined.

This Mexico City Polanco hotel launched its new wedding services and catering menu at a unique event. The Mexico City hotel joined one of the most prestigious wedding magazines in Mexico and produced JW Marriott & Novias de Pasarela Bridal Coaching. 50 couples were invited to listen to some of the most highly regarded wedding experts in Mexico City as well as to observe the different reception configurations that can be created in the versatile ballrooms of this luxurious Mexico City hotel.

Of course this change could not be complete without modernizing and renovating wedding menus. This renewal was made following the JW Marriott brand's trends. The new catering menus are elegant but simple and are specially crafted for each couple. The concept for these menus was designed by the Hotel's Executive Chef based on the concept of seeing, touching and feeling what guests are going to eat with uncomplicated and healthy presentations.

New catering items feature delicious and bold combinations, including cold avocado soup with watermelon and tequila drops, shrimp with prosciutto, lamb chops and a dessert trio of crème brûlée, champagne sorbet and cheesecake with brownie.

In addition to these new catering menu items, wedding events in Mexico City that take place on a Friday or Sunday can also benefit from a special price at the JW Marriott hotel. For more information on this special rate, or to learn more about the new wedding catering services at the JW Marriott Mexico City Hotel, contact this Mexico City hotel team via telephone at 52-55-59-99 0000 or visit www.marriott.com/MEXJW
