

About Robert Wood, PT

Robert Wood, PT, is the President of Georgetown Sports, Orthopedic, & Spine Physical Therapy Centers with three clinics located in Georgetown and Liberty Hill. He is a graduate of the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston with a degree in Physical Therapy and has been practicing as a physical therapist in Georgetown since 1984. Robert is very passionate about providing quality, personalized patient care. He utilizes his extensive clinical experience from a variety of healthcare settings (hospitals, nursing homes, home health, sports rehabilitation and private outpatient practices) to proactively analyze and implement programs that effectively address the needs of patients. Both Robert and his wife, Barbara, share a commitment to effectively treat acute medical conditions and to develop long-term exercise and preventive care programs to promote a lifetime of health and wellness. The three outpatient centers feature licensed physical therapy and personal training staff who provide individualized care to each patient based upon their presenting condition(s) and personal goals.