WHIPPANY, NJ HOTEL COMPLETES $2 MILLION RENOVATION

The Courtyard Hanover Whippany Hotel recently finished a major renovation of its lobby, meeting rooms, guest rooms and public spaces.

Whippany, NJ – One of the best hotels near Morristown, NJ, the Courtyard Hanover Whippany Hotel has just completed major renovations to nearly all aspects of its property. From guest rooms to the lobby, this Whippany, NJ hotel invested two million dollars to improve its overall guest experience.

The newly renovated lobby now features welcome pedestals, replacing traditional front desks. These new pedestals allow for more direct interaction between guests and staff. Another major addition to the lobby area is the Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect®. The new dining concept at this Whippany, NJ hotel serves modern day American cuisine for breakfast and dinner. For those coffee drinkers looking to satisfy their java fix, the Bistro now proudly serves Starbucks® coffee.

Also found in the lobby area is the new GoBoard®--a interactive touch screen LCD TV that allows guests to access driving directions, view local weather, find a local restaurant and catch up on the latest news.

Besides the lobby area, the two meeting rooms at this Whippany, NJ hotel received a number of additions perfect for business meetings and presentations. Additions include new chairs, vinyl, new carpet, projector screen, white board and wireless Internet access.

Accommodations have received new Posturpedic mattress, designed to give a more restful sleeping experience. Also included in the guest room renovation are new ergonomic desk chairs, sofas and chairs, vinyl, carpet and wireless Internet access. In fact, wireless Internet can now be accessed throughout the entire hotel.

It's not just the interior of the Courtyard Whippany Hanover Hotel that received a renovation. The outdoor space also saw a considerable update, including a new outdoor patio area and new outdoor furniture.
