We are VERY HAPPY to see you to join BestDailyDates, a revolutionary dating platform!

The old online dating as we know it is OVER – Many hoops to jump through, and lame results!

Let us tell you a little more about how our service works, and meets your needs. We all have little time, and we all would love to meet someone special. We run out of opportunities in our circle of friends, friends of friends, and we reach out to the online world, yet the online dating experience is usually a big disappointment. You are not alone to think so!

You probably got a thousand responses, and after short lived thrill, you realized it all feels like an extra job, and you don't enjoy messaging back and forth with no real date in sight. Maybe you got hardly any responses because you didn't want to follow the craziness of making your profile shine among many others, you just wanted to be YOU, and that is exactly what we want for you!

Maybe everyone you messaged is so overwhelmed going through hundreds of irrelevant messages, and didn't have a chance to get to you. Maybe after going through the pain of filtering the incoming messages, then messaging forever you finally went out on a few dates that were disastrous, but you tried hard because it cost you so much time, and effort to get those dates, and now you feel you don't want to do it all over again. We understand!

The good news is that THAT online dating is OVER.

The NEW online dating is here. THREE EASY STEPS!

You are on a date in three easy steps: post a date idea, accept one or have your idea accepted, and go on a date! It doesn't get better than that. We offer the easiest fastest most convenient sign up ever. We offer you the opportunity to post a date idea, it can be a lunch, a dinner, a drink, an activity of some sort or maybe a trip, a specific date idea though. Tell us more; tell us where you want to take your date. Maybe it's your favorite roof top bar a block away from where you live, or maybe it's that great Indian restaurant you always wanted to go to, or maybe it's a white water rafting one day trip... and tell us when you want to do it.

Other members may now see your date idea, your profile, and have a chance to choose you not only based on your profile, few silly photos, but also based on some cool idea you have. It makes it easier to break the ice, find a place, and the time that works for both of you. They accept your date, you get an email, and you are free to accept, and respond to the member's email right away, and go on that date tonight! Why not?! Or the other side of the equation! You see the matching date ideas, and you see the people who proposed them. You like the person, and the dinner place where he or she wants to go or take you, you accept it, and they email you back if they choose to go with you. Post – accept – go!

A bonus! We take the awkwardness out of it, we let you say up front who pays for the date! How about that! We all remember that moment when it's not clear who reaches for the wallet, how it makes the other person feel and so on.

We make it as convenient and as easy as possible. You want to get to know the person before you see them in real life, sure why not, email them more, let them call you if you both agree to exchange numbers, it's all up to you. Full freedom here to play.

Didn't work out? Try again! Book a bunch of dates with your favorite matches, and in your favorite places. We all know it takes some luck and time to find someone special, but the easier it is to go out on real offline dates, the more likely it is you will find him or her! And of course, we want to hear all about it!

If you have questions, wishes, doubts, thoughts or comments, feel free to email us, we promise to respond as soon as we can!

Remember it's a service FOR YOU, and we will do our best to make it the best experience possible! Help us meet your needs!
