

For Immediate Release: 11 November 2011

Ampersand Commerce and X.commerce Bring Magento Expertise to Internet Week Europe

Ampersand Commerce, the UK's leading technical experts in Magento ecommerce, are teaming up with X.commerce, the world's first open commerce ecosystem, to bring together retailers, developers and service providers for an educational discussion: 'Future of Ecommerce & Magento' in Shoreditch, London on Friday, 11 November.

Internet Week Europe is a weeklong festival to celebrate Europe's thriving Internet industry and community. Events are taking place throughout London from 7-11 November, commencing with the inaugural Lovie Awards ceremony on 11 November, where Ampersand Commerce will be accepting a Lovie Award in the 'Retail' category for their development of Made.com – the online design-focused furniture retailer.

Ampersand Commerce took the opportunity of Internet Week Europe to host an event with X.commerce, inviting current and prospective Magento users and retailers to discuss trends in Ecommerce and the future of Magento following the recent eBay acquisition. This intimate event is the first of its kind in the UK following Meet Magento and the only ecommerce focused event of Internet Week Europe, giving retailers, developers and service providers direct access to X.commerce, Magento and Ecommerce experts.

The presentation will include product overviews and news on:

- X.commerce
- Magento Go
- Magento Community
- Magento Enterprise
