Boston, MA - The newly opened Waterline restaurant at the Boston Marriott Long Wharf Hotel welcomes guests to the waterfront with new bar specials inspired by its coveted perch above the Boston Harbor and its hometown hockey champions. Every weekday from 4 pm to 7 pm, this Boston harbor restaurant brings the bounty of the sea to the table with light bites themed nightly, such as mini lobster rolls ($4 each) on Mondays and tableside-shucked New England oysters ($1 each) on Wednesdays. For those who prefer turf to surf, executive chef Joseph Chaves created Bruins Black & Blue Mini Burgers in honor of Boston's own hockey heroes.

"Every night of the week, Waterline offers the kind of comforting New England bar bites that pair perfectly with our classic cocktails or regional craft beers," said Mark Minerd, Director of Restaurant Operations and house mixologist. For full details about these newly launched specials, see below.

Bruins Black & Blue Mini Burgers

Three house-ground beef mini burgers dusted with blackening spice and topped with blue cheese, paired with a flight of four New England craft beers, $14 Available exclusively during Bruins games, home and away

Waterline's Wicked Hour Weekday evenings from 4 pm – 7 pm Monday – Mini lobster rolls, $4 Tuesday – Peel & eat shrimp, $4 Wednesday – New England oysters, $1 (shucked tableside) Thursday – Fish n' chips, $4 Friday – Jumbo lump crab cake, $4

One of the best new Boston harbor restaurants, Waterline offers classic New England fare, perfect for sharing, and made from the finest, locally sourced ingredients. With numerous small plates, sandwiches, salads and heartier dishes, every appetite is satisfied in this fresh, contemporary restaurant overlooking the Boston Harbor.

Menu highlights at this Boston harbor restaurant include snacks and starters like old bay popcorn and veal meatballs in spicy tomato sauce, local favorites including Judith Point lemon calamari, signature seafood entrees such as cast iron seared salmon and indulgent desserts like Boston cream pie and Northern Neighborhood Cannoli. Featuring one of the most robust bars of all Boston harbor hotels, the Waterline bar menu salutes quintessential American cocktails, with the Ward Eight (first served in Boston during the late 19th century), the Aviation and Fish House Punch, 16 beers on tap, and a carefully assembled wine list. The newest of restaurants in Boston Harbor, Waterline is anchored by a 12-seat bar, which offers several private booths, and features a large, communal dining table, flexible table seating, and a semi-private dining room for up to 40 guests.

Serving breakfast, lunch and dinner, Waterline at the Boston Marriott Long Wharf Harbor Hotel is open Monday through Thursday (6:30 am – midnight); Friday (6:30 am - 2:00 am); Saturday (7:00 am - 2:00 am) and Sunday (7:00 am – midnight). This Boston harbor restaurant is located at 296 State Street, right next to the MBTA's Aquarium station. Guests may enjoy two-hour validated parking when they dine at Waterline.
