

General Title Information

Title: Prayers of an Igbo Rabbi

Author: Richard Cummings

Publisher: Africana Homestead Legacy Publishers Inc.

Imprint: Africana Homestead Legacy Publishers

ISBN: 978-1-937622-02-2 (hardcover/jacket); 978-1-937622-03-9 (softcover)

Publication Date: December 15, 2011

Book Type: 6 x 9 inch hardcover with jacket and perfect bound paperback editions

Page Count: 240

Language: English

Retail Price: $27 hardcover; $20 softcover

Availability: On sale in publisher's online store at www.ahlpstore.com and at Amazon.com, barnesandnoble.com, and other booksellers and retailers. Libraries, retailers, and distributors may purchase copies from Ingram Book Company and Baker & Taylor.

Publisher contact information:

Africana Homestead Legacy Publishers Inc.
811 Church Road, Suite 105
Cherry Hill, NJ 08002
Phone: 856-773-0694
Fax: 856-486-1135
Web site: www.ahlpub.com
Web store: www.ahlpstore.com

Book Description (formally called "Annotation"):

Roger Westerfield, a prosperous, New York City attorney, travels to St. Simons Island, Georgia, to write his first novel. After deciding to buy an investment property, he is drawn into a murder investigation and the mystery of Ibo Landing.

General Title Information

BISAC subjects:

FICTION / Mystery & Detective / General; FICTION / Ghost; FICTION / Occult & Supernatural; FICTION / Literary

Author Bio and contact information:

Richard Cummings was educated at Princeton, Columbia Law School and Jesus College Cambridge. The author also of The Pied Piper, he has taught at the Haile Sellassie I University in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, and the University of the West Indies in Barbados. He resides in Sag Harbor, New York.

Contact the Sandra Dijkstra Literary Agency for more info on the author at

<http://www.dijkstraagency.com/contact.html>

Who to contact for quotes:

“Richard Cummings has written a remarkable story of how the unaccounted events of American slavery are at the root of racialism; and how they continue to haunt American life today. It brings to life one of the most haunting stories of the slave era, Ibo Landing, and shows the tragic connections that have been forged between peoples across centuries and continents.”

Chinua Achebe, author of the global best seller, Things Fall Apart, and Nigeria and Africa’s foremost novelist

Download the electronic version of this form, press release, front cover art, author photo

Visit the product page, and click the Media tab:

http://www.ahpub.com/Prayers_of_an_Igbo_Rabbi_Richard_Cummings.html

The screenshot shows the website for Africana Homestead Legacy Publishers. The main content area features the book title "Prayers of an Igbo Rabbi" by Richard Cummings. Below the title is a short excerpt from the book. To the right of the excerpt, there is a link to "Blog about our books!". At the bottom of the page, there is a "Book Description" section with details about the author, ISBN, and publication date. A navigation menu at the top includes "Home", "Catalogs", "Online Store", "Newsletter", "News Room", "Publications", "For Authors", "About Us", and "Contact Us". A search bar is located below the navigation menu. A "Media" tab is highlighted with an arrow pointing to it.