Deerfield Beach, FL (PRWEB) - November 21, 2011 – Cantor's Driving School announces that it has expanded its driving school operations and services in the South Florida area. Cantor's Driving School now serves all of Broward County and Palm Beach County and has added new driver training cars and hired additional driving instructors to provide professional, private, one-on-one driving lessons to more Florida student drivers.

Cantor's Driving School is one of the few driving schools in the area that offers night driving lessons along with normal daytime lessons. From Monday to Thursday, Cantor's regular hours extend to 8 PM, so driving lessons can be scheduled in the evening. This service helps student drivers gain valuable night driving experience and fulfill the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) requirement - 10 hours of night driving as part of the minimum 50 hours of total hours of driving experience needed to be able to take the Florida driving test.

Day & Night Driving Lessons

Unlike most driving schools, Cantor's Driving School offers night driving lessons in the evening hours as well as daytime lessons.

Cantor's Driving School recommends at least one night driving lesson to gain experience driving in low light conditions with headlights on.
