A recently published report from Internet Marketing Services has revealed that Nokia N9, the latest Smartphone from Nokia has received a software update earlier this month. This update will provide a lot more features to a phone that is already known for its amazing range of features. All the customers can find out more about the update from the official website of Nokia. It may be recalled that this model from Nokia is brand new in the market and is yes to be introduced in many countries including Canada. This new model from Nokia is known for its superior user interface which is completely different from that found in any other Smartphones.

The new software update for Nokia N9 has added a wide range of new features that would surely become extremely popular with the users very soon. The phone will now have extra filters for the photographers. Filters like solarize, vivid, negative, etc will provide options for a more creative shot. The music control feature has also been added to the lock screen mode. This extraordinary feature will help the users listen to their favorite songs without navigating the music player. The advanced version will also support NFC tag reading. Messaging is also going to be much easier now with Nokia N9, thanks to the new feature called Swype Keyboard Typing. There is a new feature for the Twitter application, too. The Nokia N9 users can now share images in Twitter.

Nokia N9 is certainly the latest buzz in mobile handset industry. Feature enriched and technologically advanced phones are nothing new these days. However, Nokia N9 has created a lot of enthusiasm amongst technology savvy telephone handset users ever since it was released. Industry experts feel that this new handset from Nokia has the potential to rule the market for some time once it is launched in all the major countries. Though it has not yet arrived in Canada, it can be purchased online in Canada from Online Nokia.
