Houston, Texas (PRWEB), 25th November 2011

HostGator is one of the most well known web hosting company in the entire United States. The company has just declared their amazing promotional offers for the Black Friday. They will be offering a whopping 50% discount on all the hosting services of the company. The customers can avail these discounts throughout the day on the 25th of November. This promotional offer will be valid from midnight CST till 11.59 PM CST on the 25th of November, Friday.

Announcing the special deal, a senior company representative of the web hosting giant said, “We are excited to announce our Black Friday offers for 2011”. The best thing about this deal is that the visitors would not need to enter any coupon code to avail the discount. The discounts would apply to the first invoice of the clients, according to company sources. The VPS and the dedicated server hosting customers can avail the discounts for the first month only. HostGator is one of the largest companies in its field and has won several prestigious rewards over the years. They provide a wide range of hosting services like shared hosting, reseller hosting, windows hosting, VPS hosting, and dedicated server. Their hosting packages are highly economical and they start from $4.95 only for shared hosting. The company offers dedicated servers for a highly competitive price of $174 only. The special Black Friday offer provides an opportunity to customers to avail 50 % discount on top of these extremely affordable rates. The details of the discounted rates and the special promotion are available on the website of the company.

The term Black Friday was used for the first time in Philadelphia almost 50 years ago. Black Friday refers to the day next to the Thanksgiving Day. This day is traditionally considered being the start of the Christmas shopping season. Many companies offer special promotional deals to their customers to celebrate this occasion. HostGator received a huge response from the customers during the Black Friday promotion in 2010. This year the company is again expecting similar enthusiasm amongst the customers to avail this unbelievable promotional offer from their favorite web hosting company.
