

Arizona Based Company Starts Offering Free Next Day Installation of Home Security Systems.

Arizona based home security giant Your Alarm Now is now offering next day installation of home security systems for no extra cost at all. This special benefit is available in select areas of Canada and the United States, according to company sources. Your Alarm Now provides complete home security packages throughout Canada and the United States within affordable price range.

Well known home security systems provider Your Alarm Now is offering an opportunity for its customers to avail a free next day installation service. This offer was recently launched by the owner of the company Mr. Paul Shakuri. The Arizona based company has already made its presence felt in the industry by providing highly affordable complete security packages all over the United States and Canada. The wireless security system provided by them has certain advantages over traditional security devices. The normal installation charge of the state of the art security systems is $99.00 only. The customers can now enjoy the benefit of the next day installation for the same installation charge.

Wireless home security systems are blessed with the latest developments in this field. The biggest advantage is that the systems are equipped with the latest technology called the cellular backup system. This technology enables the system to remain active even when there is a power outage or when the telephone lines are down. Officially announcing the free next day installation service, the owner of the company Mr. Pal Shakuri Said, "It is a great pleasure for us to introduce next day installation facility for all our future customers". He also added that, "Many customers request for immediate installation, but we were not able to do it till now". At present, the service is available in different places in the United States and Canada depending on availability of service. However, Mr. Shakuri has also mentioned that the company is growing rapidly, and very soon this benefit can be enjoyed all over these two countries.

The importance of home security systems has increased immensely with the increase in crime rate during the post recession economic slowdown. Many companies have ventured into this highly technical field to provide the much needed security to homeowners. Your Alarm Now has been able to provide quality service to its customers, thanks to highly skilled and customer centric team. Moreover, the owner of the company Mr. Shakuri is an industry expert with thorough knowledge of home security systems. The wide range of products from the company includes motion detectors, door and window sensors, burglar alarm, one click digital keypad, and many more.
