High quality of service and relatively lower price of home security systems offered by Your Alarm Now is all set to make them one of the most preferred security solution providers in Canada and America. The company provides some of the most efficient domestic protection devices to its customers. They have three attractive packages starting from $35.99 only per month. The company is owned and managed by industry veteran Mr. Paul Shakuri. He has been a successful home security consultant for nearly a decade. The comprehensive range products of the company includes devices like burglar alarm, motion detectors, window and door sensors, a special type of keychain device, a digital keypad, and many other advanced equipment.

Talking about the different packages of home security systems offered the company, Mr. Shakuri says, “Our packages are designed to suit the requirements of all our customers. The basic package is available for only $35.99 per month”. He also added that “Our objective is to provide a safe and well protected life to all households in the United States and Canada by offering rates that everyone can afford”. The basic package uses the standard landline telephone present in the house to connect to the ADT monitoring stations. They have two more plans known as the premium and elite package. The premium package costs $40.99 every month and uses a technology called the two way voice connect system. This technology reduces the response time for an emergency situation with a specially designed control panel. The elite package is tailor made for a household that do not have a landline telephone. These package users can connect to the ADT monitoring centers without a landline, thanks to the digital cellular technology.

The home security systems provided by Your Alarm Now has been acclaimed heavily by the customers due to their highly professional service. “A+++++ customer service. Couldn’t ask for anything more in a Security Company. From the Sales rep to the technician! You guys sure know how to take care of your customers”, said Andre Johnson, a customer of Your Alarm Now. The company is presently expanding aggressively to reach out even to the smaller towns all over the United States and Canada.
