

Home Security Systems from Your Alarm Now Providing 24x7 Safety to Life and Property for Just $1 per Day

The efficient home security systems offered by Your Alarm Now are making news in the industry by offering round the clock security for only one dollar per day. The company has made steady progress in the last few months, thanks to their top class products and service. Their world class security service is now available throughout Canada and America.

Surprise, AZ (PRWEB) December 09, 2011

Top class home security systems are no longer a luxury with many affordable options available to customers. Your Alarm Now has recently joined the list of low cost domestic security options in the United States and Canada. They are offering top of the line home protection packages that cost around $1 per day only. The owner of the company Mr. Paul Shakuri is an acclaimed industry expert with years of experience behind them. Your Alarm Now offers three amazing packages which are all extremely efficient and cost effective. The basic plan offered by the company is available for only $36.99 per month.

Talking about the economical home security systems offered by his company, Mr. Shakuri says, “. Domestic security is one of the biggest social concerns right now. Our objective is to provide low cost home surveillance systems with all the advanced features”. All the packages offered by the company have been appreciated by the customers so far. The standard package is also known as the Basic Alarm Monitoring system. This plan requires the homeowners to have a land line telephone. The system is equipped to transmit all the signals to a monitoring station of ADT. The two other packages named the premium and elite package are slightly more expensive. The elite package can even function without a land line phone. All these plans provide highly sophisticated security tools to ensure total protection to the customers. Some of the most well known components of their security systems are wireless sensors, pet immune motion detectors, burglar alarm, etc.

The installation charge of the home security systems provided by Your Alarm Now is only $99.00. Depending on the service availability in the area, the customers also have the option for next day installation for no additional expenses. The company boasts of some of the most qualified technical experts in the entire nation. The advent of low cost security service providers in the recent years is a significant change for the future of the industry, according to the experts. Your Alarm Now is all set to be a leading player in the market, thanks to its unbeatable rates and top notch service.

About the Company:

Your Alarm Now is a distinguished home security company providing round the clock security to homeowners in Canada and America. Their basic security plans are available for approximately $1 per day.

Contact:

Paul Shakuri

Phone: 800-599-452.

Website: <http://www.YourAlarmNow.com>