ANTHEM EDUCATION WAIVING APPLICATION FEES THROUGH JAN. 9, 2012

Phoenix, Ariz., December 13, 2011—Anthem Education is waiving application fees for new students who enroll in any program at any Anthem campus from December 5, 2011 through January 9, 2012.

“This is the time of year when many people are re-evaluating their lives and thinking about making a change,” says Shawn Alexander, National Vice President of Campus Admissions for Anthem Education. “This is our holiday gift to our prospective students who have decided to take that major step to prepare for a new career.”

Anthem Education schools and colleges are located at 23 campuses in 15 states, plus Anthem College Online.

Anthem Education prepares students to begin careers in healthcare, technology, business, criminal justice, and paralegal. Depending on the program, students can earn a diploma, associate degree, bachelor’s degree, or MBA. Not all programs are offered at all locations.

Students who enroll in Anthem Education program enjoy benefits that include:

- A format used in most programs that teaches one class at a time to allow students to really focus on and learn the material*
- Upfront information that provides one fee for tuition, books and supplies
- A Graduate Quality Warranty given to employers who hire Anthem graduates that guarantees their skills, education, and readiness to work in their fields.

“We live in a time where there is a lot of change in business and technology,” says James Hutton, PhD, Anthem Education CEO and Chancellor. “Anthem’s whole purpose is to work with people who are serious about learning and preparing for a new career. Our instructors are professionals with field experience and really do
